BEEF AT ONE MEAL A DAY IS NEW RULE

Also Ends Restrictions on Meat By-Products.

MARKET INQUIRY BEGINS

Wholesale Flour Dealer's License Revoked for Flagrant Violations.

Modification of the restrictive meat regulations amounced yesterday by the Federal Food Board, effective to-morrow, rmits the service of beef at one meal day. Under the order of June 18 the service of beef and its products was ilmned to four meals weekly.

Price Fixing Probe.

An investigation of the alleged excess sive prices of meats in Washington Market to determine whether the price fixing authority of the Food Board can be roed in a market where a "delivery and credit" system is partly in operation has been started by John J. Pollock, senior meat inspector of the board. The board has power to punish profiteers, but hitherto its authority has been exerted in cases where the "cash and carry" system has been used exclusively. carry system has been used exclusively.

Washington Market prices, it is claimed, are 10 per cent. higher on an average, than those suggested in the regularly printed lists of the Food Board, and at least 95 per cent. of the sales are on the cash and carry basis. Results of the investigation will not be made public until it is completed, but it is the opinion of Mr. Pollock that the board can enforce its price lists even in markets where part of the sales are on the sales are on the cash and carry basis. First Lieut. R. C. Eggieston from Aberties of the Senate "until disposed of."

This phraseology was not satisfactory to the prohibitionists. They pointed out that if any time an important and mandatory piece of legislation should be brought forward for immediate consideration the Senate by a majority vote might displace the prohibitory amendment. This menace they refused to permit to impend over their measure and after hours of wrangling in cloakroom and committee chamber this agreement was subscribed to by both sides.
